

State Senate Districts Proposed Plan PLANS2172

The map illustrates the proposed State Senate Districts for Plan 2172 across Texas. Each district is numbered and color-coded, with its constituent counties listed within its boundaries. The legend indicates that the color-coding represents the counties and the plan itself.
